Deputy Governor of the Bank of the Lao PDR received a courtesy visit from the IFC CEO.

On July 26, 2018, Mrs. Vathana Dalaloy, Deputy Governor of the Bank of the Lao PDR (BOL) received a courtesy visit from Mr. Philippe Le Houérou, IFC Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and his delegations. During the visit, Mr. Philippe expressed his appreciation to the BOL for the kind support over the past few years. He emphasized the IFC's strategies on how to scale up its investments and advisory activities in Lao

PDR, particularly some potential measures to further promote the Public Private Partnership (PPP) in the areas of infrastructure projects which can maximize a resilient and stable financial sector, addressing gaps in access to finance and creating financial inclusion. Mr. Philippe also discussed some measures to improve access to finance for SMEs and IFC stands ready for providing any Technical Assistant (TA) to the BOL on this matter as requested.

On this occasion, the Deputy Governor expressed the warm welcome and highly values a continuous cooperation and assistance from IFC as well as World Bank Group improving business environment which can facilitate in access to finance for SMEs and contribute to economic development of the Lao PDR.
