Bank of the Lao PDR joined The SEACEN-BIS High-level Seminar and the 17th Meeting of the SEACEN Executive Committee

On September 14– 16, 2018, BOL delegation led by Mrs. Vathana DALALOY, Deputy Governor of Bank of the Lao PDR joined The SEACEN-BIS High-level Seminar under the theme of “Digital Technologies, Financial Systems and Central Bank Policy” and the 17th Meeting of the SEACEN Executive Committee in Bangkok, Thailand together with deputies from SEACEN members guests and resource speakers.

At the high level seminar, the SEACEN Executive Committee discussed and exchanged their perspective on the rapid development of financial innovation, in particular the advantages and risks resulting from that transformation to financial system and central bank policy. Given these challenges, the regulators are playing a significant role in introducing some potential measures to respond such as: (1) adjusting the regulatory framework to balance the financial development and financial stability;(2) combating the use of funds for illicit activities; (3) protecting consumers, investors against fraud, abuses;(4) ensuring integrity of the market, payment systems and overall financial stability. In order to effectively implement the abovementioned measures, it is essential to have a dialogue and information sharing platform among members.

Along with seminar, the 17th Meeting of the SEACEN Executive Committee was convinced and discussed various issues in particular the SEACEN Executive Committee acknowledged the progress made in training course as well as the research programs for 2018. The meeting also approved the next year activities to be reported to the Board of Governors meeting in December 2018 in Sri Lanka for consideration which mainly on the training research programmes and proposed budget for 2019.
